

SIID Postgraduate Conference 2019

15-16 May, St Mary's Church*

Event Programme

Date	Time	Event	Room
15, May	10:30 - 11:30	Registration and Networking	The Garden
	11:30	Lunch	The Garden
	13:30 - 13:45	Opening Remarks by Dan Brockington (Director of SIID)	The Nave
	13:45 - 15:15	Panels 1 and 2	1 st Floor Meeting Room and Dance Studio
	15:15 - 15:30	Coffee Break	The North Aisle and Nave
	15:30 - 17:00	Panels 3 and 4	1 st Floor Meeting Room and Dance Studio
	17:30 - 18:30	SIID Annual Lecture: Decolonising Knowledge and Forging Solidarity: Disrupting colonial representations, narratives and imaginaries with Professor Uma Kothari	The Diamond, Lecture Theatre 5, University of Sheffield *
	18:30	Annual Lecture drinks reception followed by Postgraduate Conference Social	The Red Deer *
16, May	09:30 - 11:00	Panels 5 and 6	1 st Floor Meeting Room and Dance Studio
	11:00 - 11:30	Coffee Break	The North Aisle and Nave
	11:30 - 13:00	Decolonizing Development Workshop	The Nave
	13:00 - 14:00	Lunch	The North Aisle and Nave
	14.00 - 15.30	Panels 7 and 8	1 st Floor Meeting Room and Dance Studio
	15:30	Closing Remarks	The Nave

* Addresses

1. St Mary's Church: Bramall Ln, Sheffield S2 4QZ
2. The Diamond: The University of Sheffield, 32 Leavygreave Rd, Sheffield S3 7RD (Lecture Theatre 5 is in the Basement)
3. The Red Deer: 18 Pitt St, Sheffield S1 4DD

Panel Programme

Date	Time	Panel #	Room	Theme	Chair	Presenter	Institution	Paper Title
15 May	13:45 - 15:15	Panel 1	1 st Floor meeting room	Economic Development and Diversity	Linda Westman	Manuel Heckel	University of Sheffield	Decolonial development under financial globalisation?
						Shizhil Zhang	University of Sheffield	Historical foundation of China's economic rise in the modern era
						Sanjib Sherpa	Staffordshire University	Regulation and Social Performance of Microfinance Institutions (MFIs) in Emerging Markets.
						Kuat Akizhanov	University of Bath	How financialisation creates upward income distribution: Income inequality in finance capitalism
		Panel 2	Dance Studio	Power and Injustice	Hita Unnikrishnan	Henry Staples	University of Sheffield	Exploring experiences of political reintegration in 'post-conflict' Colombia
						Caitlin Brown	Central European University	Sharing the Pie: Undernutrition, Intra-household Allocation, and Poverty." Joint with Rossella Calvi and Jacob Penglase
	Annette Tony-Fadipe					University of East Anglia	Oppression in Progress
	15:30 - 17:00	Panel 3	1 st Floor meeting room	Resource Management and Community Engagement	Rosaleen Duffy	Megnaa Mehta	London School of Economics	Forest Rights or Respecting the Forest: A Tale of Two Claims in the Sundarbans Forests of West Bengal, India
						Kajenje Magessa	Bangor University	Does Participatory Forest Management in Tanzania achieve real devolution or perpetuate existing power relations?
						Jess Jones	University of East Anglia	Challenging ethnocentric assumptions about "Challenging ethnocentric assumptions about female agency and natural resources: An ethnographic study in three villages in the north of Sierra Leone"
		Panel 4	Dance Studio	Public's Participation	Steve Connelly	Ella Foggitt	University of Lancaster	Potential for coalitions to improve sanitation governance in Africa's low-income urban settlements: A study in Accra, Ghana
						Owasim Akram	Orebro University	Affording Ignorance: A Tale of the Extreme Poor Rural Elderly People of Bangladesh
Minju Jung						University of Sheffield	The public's participation in global health governance (GHG)

Date	Time	Panel #	Room	Theme	Chair	Presenter	Institution	Paper Title
16 May	09:30 - 11:00	Panel 5	1 st Floor meeting room	Poverty and Gender	Melanie Lombard	Anna Colom	The Open University	ICTs and the citizenship capabilities of women in Kenya: an intersectional approach
						Denisse Rodriguez Olivari	Humboldt University	Fighting Corruption in the 'Global South' and the 'Global North': General Assumptions and Unintended Consequence
						Elizabeth Goolden	University of Leeds	Global Period Poverty - more in common than divides us.
						Diana Jimenez Thomas	University of East Anglia	Soybeans, Violence, and Justice: the Environmental Resistance of Mayan women and men in Hopelchen, Mexico
		Panel 6	Dance Studio	Power Dynamics in Resource Development	Dan Brockington	Ruth W. John	University of Dar es Salaam	Power relations in conservation partnerships: experience from Tanzania's wildlife sector
						Yin Zhang	Visiting student at the University of Sheffield	A Typology of Community-based Co-management in China's Protected Areas
	Alex Dorgan					University of Sheffield	Carbon forestry, trade-offs in ecosystem services, and local knowledge: insights from rural Kilombrero, Tanzania
	14:00 - 15:30	Panel 7	1 st Floor meeting room	Planning and Development	Tom Goodfellow	Teklehaymant Weldemichel	Norwegian University of Science and Technology	A 60 years long experiment that failed: Multiple land use model and the process of accumulation through "unfreedom" in Ngorongoro, Tanzania
						Diogo Maia	CeSA	Paradoxes regarding Mozambique's land policy and development strategy
						Hoda Elhalaby	University of Sheffield	The Village Project; Intentions and Interventions
		Panel 8	Dance Studio	PRIME: Round Table Discussion	Julie Balen	Kerry Parris	University of Sheffield	PRIME: NIHR Global Health Research Group on PR reterm bl rth prevention and manage ME net
						Megan Cavanagh	University of Sheffield
Shumona Salaam						University of Sheffield
Siobhan Gillespie	University of Sheffield

▪ The Nave, North Aisle and Garden will be always available for everyone for socialising and networking.